Job Posting – Young Adult Ministry Missioner

青年事工傳道

St Christopher's Anglican Church is seeking a passionate part-time (25 hours/week) Cantonese speaking Young Adult Ministry (YAM) Missioner to reach out and to nurture Hong Kong newcomers in Toronto and York Region areas.

We are a vibrant parish of Chinese heritage in the heart of Richmond Hill and North York, St Christopher's conducts worship services and ministries in both Cantonese and English. We have a strong sense of mission and are committed to sharing the Gospel, nurturing believers, caring for each other and serving the community. Our congregations have outreach programs, Bible Study groups and small group ministries.

The YAM Missioner will work with those who plan to come and those recently arrived in Canada from Hong Kong. This age group is predominantly between 20 to 40 years old, some come for work and others for continued education.

The YAM Missioner is responsible for developing outreach programs to Hong Kong newcomers and in North York Church, supporting young adult groups, journeying with them in Christ, equipping members to become ministers of Jesus Christ, providing pastoral care and leadership in reaching out to the community, familiar with digital experiences, leading Sunday worship, and monthly preaching. The ability to work in a team is important. Previous experience will be an asset. M.Div. or equivalent degree is preferred. Must be able to speak and write Cantonese and English fluently. This position has a potential to become a full-time job.

Please send your resume to the Rev. Dr. Philip Der at pder@stchris.ca or call 416-712-0295 before October 30, 2022.
